

WOMEN UNDAUNTED BY TRIFLING VOTE

French Suffragists Refuse to Be Discouraged By Result of Elections.

PARIS, April 25.—French suffragists refuse to see in the insignificant vote given their candidates for the chamber of deputies in yesterday's initial balloting a reason for discouragement. Mme. Madeline Peletier, president of the Woman's Solidarity League, said today that the "fight would go on."

Mme. Peletier polled 240 votes, far more than any other woman candidate received. Mme. Marguerite Durand, the most active woman campaigner, got only thirty-four votes in the Montmartre district.

Although the complete result of the general election cannot be definitely known till tonight, the leaders of the radical government this afternoon claimed a sweeping victory and their opponents conceded it.

It was clear that many of the most prominent members and supporters of the government, including the Socialist premier, Aristide Briand, were assured of election. The election was the tamest seen in France in years.

Minister of Public Works Millerand was defeated because he was one of the instigators of the separation movement and for having received large fees for his alleged influence in behalf of the Congregationalists.

The final balloting will take place May 8, when the two leading candidates in each district will be voted on.

BOY'S THEFT OF COAL MAY CHANGE ENGLISH LAW

Case Breaks Into Parliament, Causes Trouble In British Home Office, Is Given Wide Publicity, and End Is Not In Sight.

LONDON, April 25.—Beginning with the theft of 10 cents worth of coal by the twelve-year-old son of a Hayward's Heath blacksmith son, what is now known as the Bulbeck case, has broken into parliament, shaken the British home office, taken up columns of space in newspapers, and promises to end in an overturning of the country's system of magistracy.

Charles Bulbeck, who is the central figure, is the son of Alfred Bulbeck, a skilled workman of good reputation. Ten days ago Charles picked up a lump of coal in the yard of a Hayward's Heath coal company, and was arrested for theft.

The local magistrates admitted that he was a "good lad," and that it was his first offense. To "keep him in the straight path," they sentenced him to receive six lashes from the village constable, and to serve six years in a reformatory. His father was also fined $6.50, and 50 cents weekly toward his son's maintenance while in prison.

Owing to the father's standing in the community a tremendous outcry was raised, though the case was not at all unusual. Home Secretary Churchill was questioned concerning it in the house of commons, and is now taking steps to have the sentence either modified or a full pardon granted. In the meantime, young Bulbeck, already flogged, is in prison.

One result has been the starting of a movement toward the abolition of the benches of laymen for the trial of minor offenses and the substitution for regular lawyers for such positions. At present these benches are made up almost exclusively of large land owners, whose regard for the rights of property is a mania.

CO-EDS AT BATES PLAN BALL TEAM

LEWISTON, Me., April 25.—The fair co-eds of Bates College will take up baseball as regular outdoor athletic work.

When the weather becomes settled preliminary practice will begin on the Bates diamond. For a time, at least, the boys will be excluded.

The co-eds are looking for a suitable coach and plan to organize a first and second team and perhaps a third.

STORES BURNED IN INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS, April 25.—Fire of unknown origin, which started in the center of the wholesale district at 2 o'clock this morning, destroyed the plant of the Burdall Paint Company, Meridian and Maryland streets, and damaged the stores of the Nichols Candy Company, the Indianapolis Cordial Company, the Star Millinery Company, and Kuhn Brothers. The total loss is $290,000.
